Lee Flower Design Academy Sdn. Bhd. - Education Director.

International Floral Design Education Association (IFD) – President.

Sanya Floriculture Institute (China) – Vice President.

China (Sanya) International Orchid Exhibition – Advisor / Design Director.

Kathy Ong (王梅丽) is an internationally recognized floral designer, accredited by the American institute of Floral Design (AIFD) and is currently the Education Director of Lee Flower Design Academy, Malaysia. She also holds the position of President and Vice President in Malaysia's International Floral Design Education Association (IFD) and China's Sanya Floriculture Institute respectively.

Style

Kathy Ong is Malaysia's most acknowledged floral designer with a passion for flowers and the floristry industry. With great respect for nature's beauty and each flower's character, her minimalist style stresses on balance being the key aspect in her designs, ensuring even the smallest flowers contribute to her design as a whole.

Floral arrangement has always been a way of expressing herself beyond boundaries, where she is able to combine different elements and still achieve a refreshing and perfect harmony in her designs. She is spirited in extending the life of floral and botanical materials to unveil their second life in an artistic form that can be appreciated by others. Her values and beliefs are often a reflection of her interpretation and respect for the flowers.

Accreditation & Education

Kathy is honored at being one of the few AIFD accredited designers in Malaysia, a Top Asian Florist and World Top Creative Chinese Floral Designer. Having several accreditations and certifications, she firmly desires to upgrade the industry's skills and is a strong advocate for floral design education in Malaysia. Being the pioneer in her industry, her academy (Lee Flower Design Academy, better known as LFDA) aims to develop the profession and set the stage for opportunities that could assist the Malaysian government in developing the Skill Learning Program and Education syllabus and course modules for the Floristry Industry in Malaysia.

Global Networking

Her strong credentials speak well of her popularity. Extensive networking in local and international floral industries has helped to upgrade and elevate the industry in Malaysia, especially when bringing in international floral designers to participate in international floral design events such as the Putrajaya Floria Flower & Garden Festival (from 2007 - 2013) and various floral workshops led by internationally - acclaimed floral designers.

Appointments, Awards & Commendations

Kathy's inspirational floral design pieces have been published in China, Hong Kong and Italy and are frequently featured in print and audio visual media locally and internationally. She has represented her country and won numerous awards from internationally acclaimed competitions such as the AIPH - INTERNATIONAL HORTICULTURAL EXPOSITION 2011. As a highly accredited floral designer, she has played the roles of an advisor and a judge in multiple design competitions organized by international Floriculture and Horticultural associations.

Her status as an international award-winning floral designer has made her the leading floral designer in Malaysia and a popular choice for floral design work. She is also acknowledged as the "Queen of Floral Floats" in Malaysia having been involved in designing and building more than 70 floats for floral parades since 1991.

International Training & Collaborations

She has worked and trained with many world renowned floral designers from United States, Netherlands, Spain, France, Germany, Belgium, Korea, Taiwan, Japan and China. In her quest to take the industry to higher levels, Kathy herself is a strong leader in managing large scale floral projects both locally and internationally, from conceptualization and overall management to execution and delivery. Creating competition platforms and securing global participation in international floral design shows is her fort e.

Academy

Kathy manages her floral design academy, Lee Flower Design Academy (LFDA) - the leading floral design academy in Malaysia. It was set-up with a mission of providing internationally accredited and professionally recognized training and educational programmes, locally and from abroad. With 28 years of floral design experience, she has been nurturing future generations of floral designers in her Academy and has guided them to achieve excellence in local and international competitions.
